

NOAH Lubert

Studying vocals at Florida State University's prestigious College of Music, NOAH has been known to rock a microphone. With soulful vocals and a pounding keyboard, people compare NOAH's talent to that of RCA recording artist Gavin Degraw, but NOAH's hip-hop influenced sound is bound bump harder and get louder than anyone else in the business. On stage since toddler years, NOAH hand-picked some of Tallahassee's funkier cats to ensure a performance no less than wild. Ever since he started songwriting, NOAH has been blowing up Tallahassee's scene with only impromptu public concerts on street concerts, at open mics and on Florida State's campus.
